H INGKONG. MAY 7TH, 1 5 6 PROBABLY the most important provision in the Spirit Licences Bill, from a popular point of view, is that which compels public-houses to close at eleven o'clock at night. The reason for the introduction of this provision has never been stated in Council, and we are at a loss to know what it can be. But whe-5532 5540 ther the provision be a desirable one or not we hold that the Legislature has no right to take action in such a matter until after full explanation of the grounds on which the proposal is made and opportunity bas been 5933 afforded for public discussion. The statement of the Acting Attorney-General in moving the second reading of the Bill was most decidedly misleading. After saying that there was very little that was new in the Bill, and making other remarks 6765 6773 leading to the supposition that the licensing provisions were the same as had, been included in the defunct Spirits Farm Bill, he went on to say " The first new clause is clause 8:- The Colonial Secretary may at any time issue temporary licences for the sale of liquors at any public entertainment or on any public occasion on payment of such fee in each case as to the Governor shall seem fit.' . . . LESSONS IN FRENCH AND GERMAN MR. SWEETMAN, who has gained a high reputation for his practical and thorough teaching of EUROREAN LANGUAGES, intends giving a series of LESSONS in the FRENCH and GERMAN LANGUAGES daily, to extend over three months, thus enabling those who are unable to engage him for any fired hour, to gain a thorough knowledge of either or both Languages at a very small expense and in their own time. From the accompanying 1st Lessons it will be seen that it is within the THE British Steamer grasp of all to comprehend these lessons, every word being carefully spelt as pronounced, and the German letters Latinised, doing away with Captain Chater, will be despatched as above the initial difficulty of learning the German TO-MORROW, the Sthinstant. letter, which will appear in subsequent lessons. When finished the course of Lessons will form the most complete French and German course extant, and an invaluable vade mecum. It will include Commercial Forms and letters of every description, selections from modern authors, and general conversations, altogether forming the most complete and useful manual ever issued.

Not less than 100 subscribers are necessary to THE Company's Steamship carry out this work at $3.50 per month or $10 for the Complete Course. Any difficulty experienced by Students in comprehending the lessons, will be readily ax.
